

21 October 2010

More accolades for Surfdale apartment

Waiheke design and build company Ardern UDB won a prestigious national architecture award in a ceremony last Friday evening.

The company's Surfdale apartment built under the Lite-House brand at 14

Hamilton Road won the 'Architectural Designers New Zealand' (ADNZ) award in the 'Residential New Home up to 250 square feet' category.

Designer Bryce Ardern was unable to pick up the award in person as he is currently celebrating his 50th birthday on a family holiday, but texted the company to say "Bula!"

Mr Ardern was particularly delighted with the judges' comments applauding the project for its "strong commitment to sustainable design and materials selection that set a quality standard for this section of the market."

The apartment at 14 Hamilton Road Surfdale will re-open to the public as a show home this Labour Weekend from 1pm to 4pm or by appointment on 0800 372 100. •